DEDICATION

DEDICATION

For six years of understanding, intelligence, excellence, humor and dignity, the 1969 Noryaraca is dedicated to Robert O. Linscott.

The establishment of North Yarmouth Academy was brought about by a desire on the part of the inhabitants of the old town of North Yarmouth to have a school, "in which the youth of both sexes might have an opportunity of receiving a better education than the common town school generally afford." Money for erecting a school building was subscribed in the winter of 1810-11; and, when, on Dec. 28, 1813, Ammi R. Mitchell and thirty-five other inhabitants of the town petitioned the General Court of Massachusetts for a charter of incorporation, the structure was nearly ready for occupancy.

HEADMASTER'S LETTER

Looking out my window at the snow falling, I find it difficult to believe that I am writing a letter for the yearbook which will bring the Academic year 1968-69 to a close. Certainly such cliches as, "time flies" and "time waits for no man" have come true as I look over the members of the graduating class of 1969. Many of you have seen a small campus become a large campus and the enrollment increase from 135 to 186, and the addition of dormitories and playing fields. Each of you has played a part in these developments and I want to express my appreciation to you and to your parents for the cooperation given me and the school over the years.

The opening remarks of James A. Patrick Jr., President of the Student Council, that he must have a cabinet which would "uphold the traditions, break new ground, be energetic and serious" was prophetic because the Council has done an excellent job and the students have given the Council their cooperation. Another phrase in this talk I would like you all to remember when you find yourself on a college campus in 1969 ... "a serious student government cannot be made up of Mr. Personalities with cute nicknames, nor class clowns, nor adventurers into Hippie-land ..." Think of this when you pick your student leaders in college and those you wish to follow in the future.

On behalf of the Trustees, the faculty and myself I wish you success in college and in your life beyond - please come back and see us often.

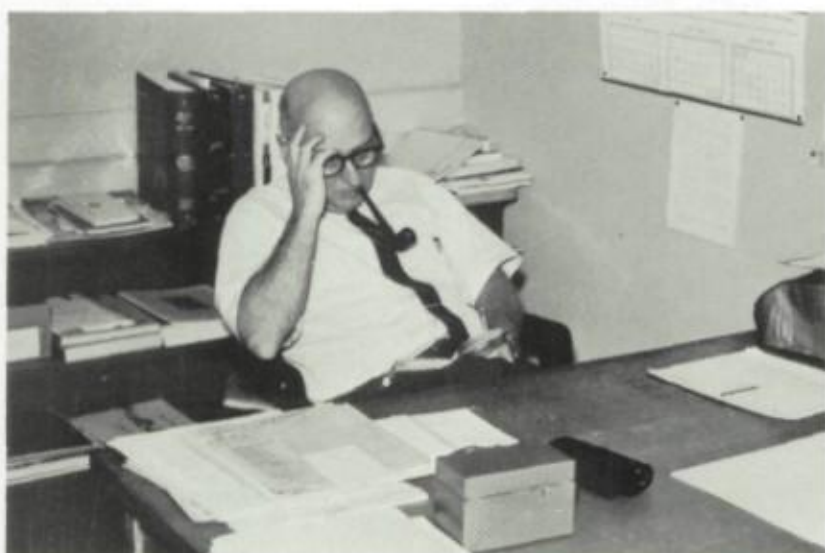

ADMINISTRATION FACULTY, STAFF

MR. JOHN J. NEEDHAM and MR. FREDERIC V. STONE

More than the sum of its parts, a school is, inevitably, fashioned by the humors of those who are its backbone: the administration, the faculty, the staff. We were all effected by Monday morning blahs, weekend prospects, SAT headaches, end of quarter anxieties, and the everyday confrontations in the office, classroom, dining hall and dorm are the things memories are made of. Noryaraca supplies the faces of those memories, caught sometimes unaware, working, teaching, exhibiting their humors.

THE OFFICE: From 9 to 4 the hub, sending runners, answering the phone, punishing the wicked, rewarding the good, paying the bills, admitting and expelling, typing and mimeoing, queing up for guidance with Mr. Reed, talking with Mr. Needham, conferring with Mr. Stone, explaining to Mr. Flaherty, chatting with Mrs. Kingsbury while Mrs. Flood and Mrs. Dugas bent busily over their work ... this was the office.

HISTORY

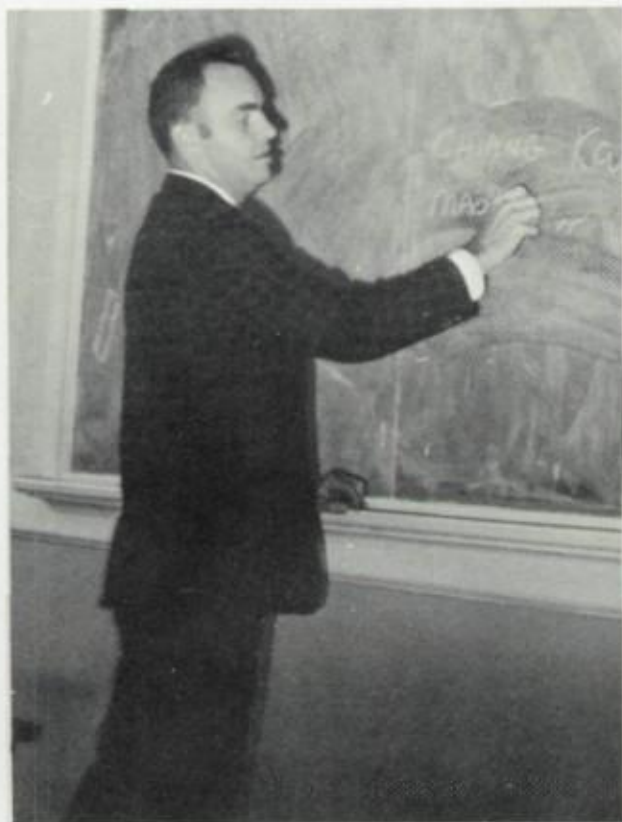

No less complex to us than to Toynbee or Spengler were the winding ways of history and politics, but led by stalwarts Mr. Hanson, Mr. Stone, Mr. Pease, Mr. Flaherty and Mr. Bradford, the epic of East and West began to make sense.

MAINTENANCE

JOH STEWART, ELMER LIBBY, CHARLES HOLBROOK, BOB LOCKLIN.

Wherever we went, wherever we were on campus, somehow litter accumulated. Left to Elmer Libby and his crew to clean up as well as keep us warm, mend the broken, and finally to be the best guys on campus.

KITCHEN

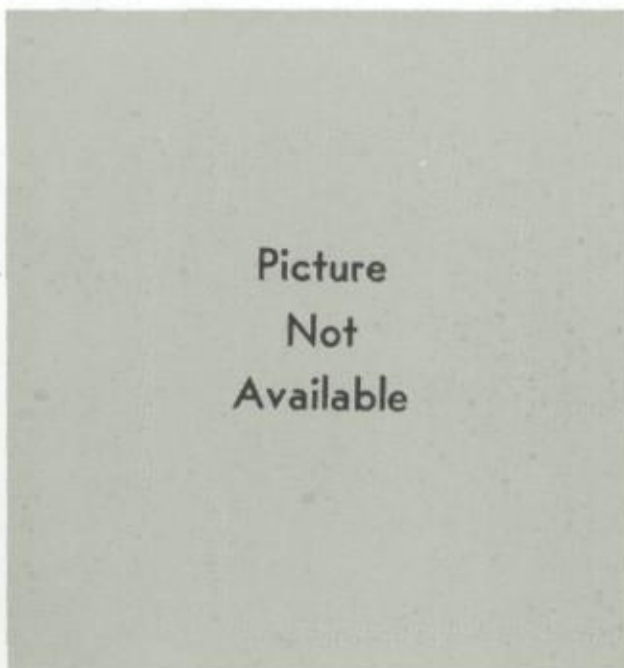

Through the efforts of our head chef Don Drew and his fine crew of assistants, N.Y.A. was once again blessed with fine food this year. The efforts of these people go continually unnoticed through the year. The yearbook, speaking for the students, would like to give their thanks and appreciation to these people.

Coached by Mr. Stone the team ended the season with a fair record. Impeded by a full leg cast Coach Stone managed and ran a strong team. With excellent teamwork some exciting and professional soccer was demonstrated on the field.

The idea of a J. V. team is to master certain basic skills that will enable the participants to graduate to the varsity at a later date. This goal was certainly accomplished under the watchful eye of Coaches Corbett and Pease. What the players lacked in ability they made up for with determination. Because of these attributes many of these players will be of great assistance to the varsity next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country had a successful season this year recording a winning season. The team was ably coached by Mr. Greary. Leading in the scoring department was captain and M.V.P. Greg Wilkinson. Good things are in store for next year's Cross Country team as a great part of the team of the '69 team was composed of underclassmen.

Under the new leadership of head coach Rudman the Varsity Football team compiled a 2 win 3 loss 1 tie record. The record is not indictive of the teams prowess as the schedule was the most demanding in the school's history. Harvard and Bowdoin Freshman teams were on the schedule as the Panthers diversified from their usual Prep School opponents.

BOTTOM ROW: Nardone, Hague, Hirsch, Elmer, Nataupsky, Eisman, Scholes, Rogers, Angers, Grant.

The J. V. Football team had a winning record against some very tough opponents. Coach Flaherty took his raw troops and turned them into an orderly efficient team. The highlight of the season was a resounding victory against Portland High School's J. V. Football team. The final scores were:

N. Y. A.	OPPONENT
0	Portland J. V. 's	38
48	Kents Hill	6

12	Portland J. V. 's	8

The Academy went to sea this year in competition. Coach Francis instructed and managed the team to a two win no loss season. Interest in this sport has grown at NYA and Sailing has found a permanent place among sports at the Academy.

With a strong offense the Varsity Basketball team completed the season victoriously. Coach Bradford directed and managed to a fourteen win nine loss season. With such players as Melinitsky, August, Young and others, the team came close to winning the Championship. Returning members Rosenburg, Miller, and Marquis assure the '69-70 team of a winning season.

FIRST ROW: Jake Cobb, Don Curtis, Peter Clough, Mark Dykehouse, Ken Wille, Jeff Zwecker. SECOND ROW: Mr. Payson, John Binder, John Paul, Dan Statler, Chris Nyhan, Frank Hennessy, Mr. Pease.

This year's team was made up of many inexperienced players. With the coaching of Mr. Payson the team ended the season with a 6-10 record. Many of the players will be graduating to Varsity giving next year's team a concrete basis to work with.

Warm weather, late night practice, bus rides to Bowdoin for practice, squad meetings, and cold weather are the marks of the Hockey team. The team had impressive victories over Hinkley and Berwick. Though the record shows only three wins this was a young ambitious team with the majority of players being underclassmen. Improvement with age is looked to by the team in the '69-'70 season.

This year's Wrestling team broke even with a record of 3-3. Coach Graves guided the team through the season to the State and New England Championships. Taking firsts in the State Meet were Howard, Spahr, Fowler, and Grey. In the New Englands Grey and Spahr took seconds with Pride taking a fourth place. While losing some big men next year's team promises to live up to its reputation.
